CHIVERS SOUND LIBRARY

Complete & Unabridged Audio Books from America

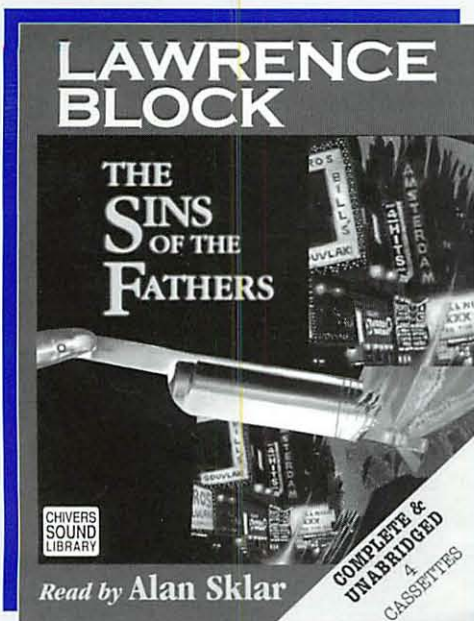

For the past three years Chivers' US offshoot, Chivers North America, has been producing a high-quality range of complete and unabridged audio books known as the Chivers Sound Library, aimed primarily at the American market. Specially recorded in their New York studios, using state-of-the-art digital technology, these audio books have proved so successful and been greeted with such critical acclaim that we felt they may have a far broader appeal.

With this in mind, we'd like to offer you the chance to buy these first-class recordings when they are published, and we're sure you'd also want to take a look at their impressive backlist, featuring such popular authors as Barbara Taylor Bradford, Max Brand, Alice Hoffman and Donald E. Westlake, who has been described by New York Magazine as 'one of the hippest, coolest, funniest mystery writers out there'.

Among the new titles featured in this brochure are Michael Patrick MacDonald's disturbing tale of a working-class Irish family in Boston, All Souls; Jayne Ann Krentz's sparkling romantic comedy, Flash; Faye Kellerman's chilling story about the leader of a sinister cult, Jupiter's Bones; and McNally's Gamble, by one of America's most popular novelists, Lawrence Sanders, a Palm Beach mystery starring the playboy sleuth, Archy McNally.

If you're looking for authentic American fiction, recorded in America, by Americans, then you really can't afford to ignore Chivers Sound Library.

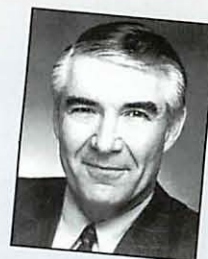

LAWRENCE BLOCK THE SINS OF THE FATHERS

Read by Alan Sklar ➔

The hooker was young, pretty . . . and dead, butchered in a Greenwich village apartment. The prime suspect, a minister's son, was also dead, the victim of a jailhouse suicide. The case is closed, as far as the NYPD is concerned. Now the murdered prostitute's father wants it opened again . . . and that's where Matthew Scudder comes in. But this assignment carries the unmistakable stench of sleaze and perversion, luring Scudder into a sordid world of phony religion and murderous lust, where children must die for their parents' most secret, unspeakable sins.

STEVE HAMILTON WINTER OF THE WOLF MOON

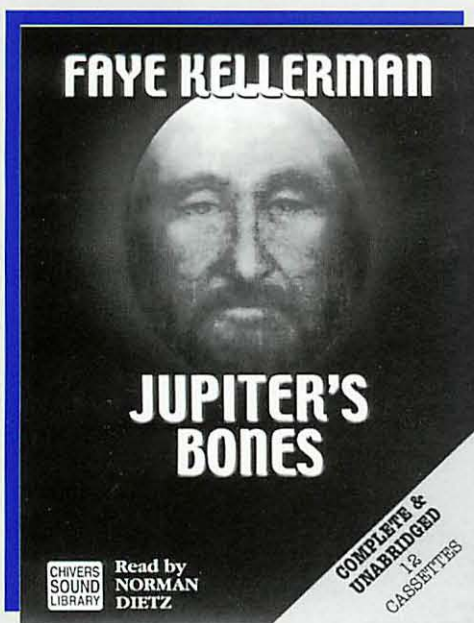

Read by Nick Sullivan ➔

Alex McKnight has a souvenir from his days as a cop – a bullet lodged too near his heart to be removed. He also has a guilty conscience about the death of his partner in that same shooting, and now he is left alone in his spartan log cabin, taking his meals at the nearby roadhouse, finding company there when he wants it. But when a young native American woman comes to him for help, McKnight feels bound to protect her. He ensconces her in an unoccupied cabin – and finds her gone the next morning. Convinced that her ex-lover has kidnapped her, he begins a frantic search that leads to some extremely unpleasant discoveries as he learns that criminal sadism knows no bounds . . .

FAYE KELLERMAN JUPITER'S BONES

Read by Norman Dietz →

Dr Emil Euler Ganz was considered a pre-eminent astrophysicist, a world-renowned professor with a brilliant reputation. Then, without warning to his family or colleagues, he vanished. For ten years, no one knew of his whereabouts until he suddenly reappeared as 'Father Jupiter', the founder of a pseudo-scientific cult – the Order of the Rings of God. For fifteen years, Ganz ruled his hundreds of disciples with spiritual words and an iron fist. Now, the aging and charismatic leader has been found dead, a fifth of vodka and a phial of pills by his bedside. LAPD Lieutenant Peter Decker and his team of homicide detectives pose official questions. Is Ganz's death an accident, a suicide ... or homicide?

JAYNE ANN KRENTZ FLASH

Read by Kate Fleming →

Olivia Chantry is a business dynamo. Her success has almost made up for a crumbled marriage. But all that may change when Olivia inherits 49% of Glow, Inc., her uncle's high-tech lighting firm, and she is up against the interloper who has bagged the other 51%: Jasper Sloan, a venture capitalist and deal-maker. The two business partners barely keep control of the sexual energy crackling between them. And when they discover a blackmailer is hard at work uncovering secrets inside Glow, Inc., Olivia and Sloan's venture faces the acid test of truth ... and a need for trust. When extortion turns to murder, a union of their minds – and hearts – might be their only chance to stay alive.

MICHAEL PATRICK MACDONALD

ALL SOULS

Read by William Dufriis ➔

The anti-busing riots of 1974 forever changed Southie, Boston's working class Irish community, branding it as a violent, racist enclave. Michael Patrick MacDonald grew up in Southie's Old Colony housing project. He describes the way this world within a world felt to the troubled yet keenly gifted observer he was even as a child. But the threats – poverty, drugs, a shadowy gangster world – were real. MacDonald lost four of his siblings to violence and poverty. All Souls is heartbreaking testimony to lives lost too early, and the story of how a place so filled with pain could still be the best place in the world.

DOROTHY WEST THE WEDDING

Read by Cynthia Jones ➔

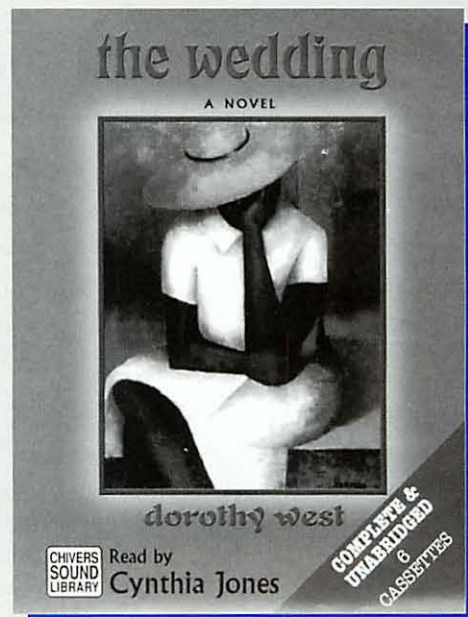

Dorothy West, the last surviving member of the Harlem Renaissance, offers an intimate glimpse into the African-American middle-class. Set on Martha's Vineyard in the 1950s, The Wedding tells the story of life in the Oval, a proud community made up of the best and brightest of the East coast's black bourgeoisie. The Coles family have gathered for the wedding of their loveliest daughter, Shelby, who could have chosen from a vast array of eligible men – but instead has fallen in love with a white jazz musician from New York. A shock wave breaks over the Oval as its long-time members grapple with the changing face of its community.

CATHERINE RYAN HYDE PAY IT FORWARD

Read by William Dufres ➔

It started with a teacher who moved to California to teach social studies. Nobody knew him very well because it was hard to look at his face. It started with a boy who didn't seem very remarkable, but who could see past his teacher's face. It started with an assignment that this teacher had given out a hundred times before – but that assignment, in the hands of that boy, caused a seed to be planted ... and after that nothing in the world would ever be the same.

FERN MICHAELS DEAR EMILY

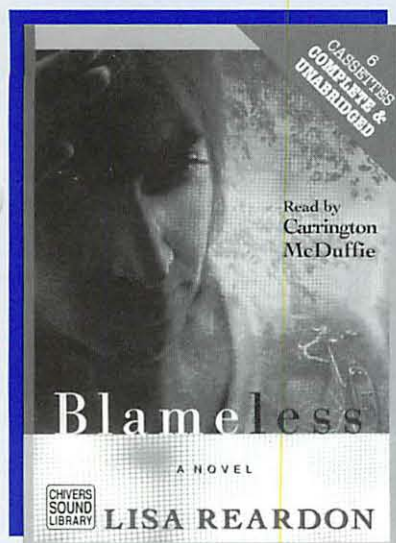

Read by Melissa Hughes ➔

At forty, Emily's husband ends their marriage with a letter. She had believed him when he told her that someday she would have everything she could ever want. What she got was overweight and dumped. Emily slims down and opens up a chain of fitness centres. She finds herself involved with two men, one kind and compassionate, the other unpredictable and alarmingly sensual. Now all she has to do is choose the right one.

LISA REARDON
BLAMELESS

Read by Carrington McDuffie ➔

Mary Culpepper is a strong woman, but when she discovers the body of a child in her small Michigan town, she suffers a breakdown. In the following months, Mary does all she can to keep her mind off the impending trial, in which she will have to tell what she did and did not witness. As the trial looms closer, and Mary's past catches up with her, not even the heated passion of an illicit affair can fend off the Night Visitor ...
